

Instructions for How to Join the Microsoft Team for this class:

I am trying to add everyone in my classes to the following Microsoft Team. Some of you will be notified or the new team for the class will show up automatically in Teams if you are logged in under the email you sent me.

IF NOT:

Below is the link to request to join the team. Please do so ASAP so I can start getting everyone set up.

TL;DR; Here is the link for this class in my Microsoft Teams:

Also, there is now a page on my website (above) you can find an educator page for my CTAERN PD Classes - for when I add resources for you to use. We will go over where to find everything at our first meeting.

PLEASE be prepared to install the IDE for each class on the first meeting. You will absolutely need your computers each day we meet, and don't forget chargers!

For everything we do, we will not only do it ourselves, but we will go over how we do it with my students as well. I have been asked many times to share how I manage this with over 190 students each semester, as my class sizes require efficiency 😊
